

“Facing Mercy”

Deacon Ryan Adorjan

“Face it: God delights in showing mercy, and mercy always triumphs over judgment. Mercy isn’t something in the abstract, but something tangible and accessible that God wants to give each one of us.”

The first night is an overview of the story of salvation history: why do we even need mercy in the first place? Night number two is a chance to look more closely at the need for mercy in our own lives and then to receive it in the Sacrament of Confession. The third night looks at the future: how do we live in the context of freedom?

Deacon Ryan Adorjan is a transitional deacon for the Diocese of Joliet. He is a seminarian currently pursuing graduate studies in theology at the University of St. Mary of the Lake -- Mundelein Seminary. He was ordained a Deacon on April 21, 2017 and serves as Deacon at St. Mary Immaculate Parish in Plainfield. Deacon Ryan will be ordained a priest on May 26, 2018 at the Cathedral of St. Raymond Nonnatus in Joliet, Illinois.

Deacon Ryan is a frequent speaker at parish and youth events throughout the area. He was a featured speaker at the 2012 Diocese of Charlotte Eucharistic Congress. His work in the New Evangelization with new media, including the founding of VianneyMedia -- a social media apostolate -- was featured on EWTN’s “Life on the Rock.” In September 2015, he was a delegate to the World Meeting of Families in Philadelphia. Many parishioners will remember his previous mission, “The Theory of Everything” -- presented at St. Isaac Jogues in October of 2016. Join us for this spirit-filled Parish Mission for Lent!
